Cerney Ash Goats – unpasteurised goats milk, Gloucester UK

Made by hand in Gloucestershire using unpasteurised goat's milk, the Cerney Pyramid is a full fat Valencay-type cheese. Coated with an oak ash/sea salt mix locking in the subtle flavour with a hint of a lemony tang.

Baron Bigord – unpasteurised cows milk, Suffolk UK

A creamy, white bloomy-rind cheese handmade, from raw Montbeliarde cows milk. It has a smooth silky texture and a golden curd, with long lasting warm earth, farmyard and mushroom flavours.

Isle of Mull Cheddar – unpasteurised

Isle of Mull cheese is a hard cow's milk cheese produced by the company of the same name in the Inner Hebrides, off the west coast of Scotland.

It's a traditional cheese with an ivory and somewhat soft pate. After 18 months of maturation, the cheese develops a complex, sharp, tangy and fruity flavour.

Cashel blue – pasteurised cows milk - Tipperary –Ireland

Cashel Blue is a hand-made, semi-soft, mildly blue veined and slightly acidic blue cheese with a creamy texture, made from cows milk. Over half the milk used in the production of Cashel Blue comes from their own farm.

The meat market

All our steaks are aged for at least 28 days and are served with fries and malt-glazed onion.

Cumbrian Lakeland Fells

Its leaner, tighter texture, slightly darker colour and unique flavour makes it so delicious you can almost taste the meadow in the meat. It is one of Britain's most prized secrets and until recently, only known within the borders of Cumbria. It must be the clean Lakeland air.

6oz	Sirloin	£19
8oz	Sirloin	£28
10oz	Rib-eye	£27
8oz	Fillet	£33

Yorkshire Wagyu

Take one Wagyu bull going by the name of Black-Gold Shogun and a herd of Holstein-Friesian cows, stick them in a field in Yorkshire and then let nature take its course. Wagyu's extensive marbling of fat that flows throughout the meat produces a tender and flavourful cut.

8oz	Rib-eye	£39
10oz	Sirloin	£44
